

CELEBRATE
the Sacraments...
A NEW Beginning
FOR THE FAMILY
A Campaign for St. Mary Catholic Parish

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings! I hope this finds you doing well and enjoying the many blessings of a new year and what it offers, socially and spiritually. In my desire to stay true to my promise to provide periodic updates on our building project and upcoming capital campaign, today I'd like to share some insight.

After a few delays I, along with lay leaders of St. Mary, am scheduled to meet with the project Financing Review Committee (PFRC) of the Archdiocese of Denver to explain our campaign plans.

At this meeting on Feb. 28, I expect to receive full campaign approval.

With that in mind, we will soon begin the campaign process. We're not ready to ask anyone for support—that's down the road a few months. But in the coming weeks, we'll begin looking to you, our parish leaders, who are willing to help with the campaign. Please understand I will need your help to complete the task.

Until then, I encourage you to view the video message I recently shared via Flocknote. My message speaks of the journey we are about to embark together as a faith family. Please take a few minutes to enjoy it and if you run into Mike Gorzelanski you might let him know you appreciate him. He produced, shot and edited the video. I hope you agree that God has blessed Mike with broadcast production talent. That video is the first in a three-part series. I hope you look forward to the next installment.

Again, I remind you to keep our parish and our campaign plans in your prayers. Ask God to guide us where He wishes to take us; to travel the path He wants us to follow as we Celebrate the Sacraments...A New Beginning for the Family together at St. Mary Catholic Parish.

Praised be Jesus Christ!

Fr. Javier Nieva, DCJM
Pastor